

PREACHING THE GOSPELS AND ACTS

Instructors: Dr. Jonathan Pennington, Dr. Robert S. Kinney, Dr. Douglas S. O'Donnell,
Dr. Mike Bullmore, Kevin DeYoung, and Romell Williams, Jr.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

This course provides a teaching practice and laboratory to provide students with tools, models, and opportunities for practicing teaching from the Gospels and Acts. It includes viewing online content delivered by the Charles Simeon Trust and participating in discussions on the content, which are then supplemented with additional readings that focus attention on the exegetical demands of this genre, specifically concerning how to study the Gospels and Acts for preaching and teaching.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of this course:

1. Students will have an accurate grasp of the main characteristics of the Gospels and Acts and understand the specialized opportunities and demands of teaching from this genre.
2. Students will improve the quality of their own study and preparation for teaching by interacting with instructional material from expert practitioners and over preparation on texts from the Gospels and Acts.
3. Students will, by presenting their own work in the context of collegial and critical small group, be better able to identify and improve in skills and strategies relevant to expounding the Gospels and Acts.
4. Students will appreciate the value of offering and receiving constructive feedback.
5. Students will allow the taught Word itself to inform their lives in ways consistent with the reasons the Holy Spirit saw fit to include them in Scripture.

COURSE FORMAT

This course is divided into four primary components:

1. The first component is the student's viewing of the eight online videos and the completion of the relevant study guides. These eight videos include five instructional sessions and three sample expositions.
2. The second component is the small group sessions where the student will discuss the assigned Study Questions as well as prepare two assigned passages from the Gospels and Acts in advance and present them for collegial feedback.
3. The third component is reading all assigned texts and writing one critical book review.
4. The fourth component and capstone project is to prepare and preach two sermons from assigned passages from the Gospels and Acts using the tools, skills, and strategies taught in the course and provide supporting preparation documentation.

REQUIRED TEXTS

There are four required readings:

- Bauckham, Richard. Jesus and the Eyewitnesses. (704 pages)
- Pennington, Jonathan. Reading the Gospels Wisely. (282 pages)
- Stott, John. The Message of Acts. (428 page)
- Charles Simeon Trust. Study Guide on the Gospels and Acts. (18 pages)

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Each student is expected to:

1. Actively view each of the eight online videos and thoroughly complete the relevant Study Questions.
2. Prepare two practice outlines from the texts listed in the syllabus, and submit outlines after presenting to the course coordinator (Texts 1 & 2).
3. Prepare and deliver two recorded sermons on two texts from the Gospels and Acts other than those used for the practice outlines that employ the tools, skills, and strategies covered in the course (Texts 3 & 4).
 - a. notes (however rough) from one week in advance of giving each sermon
 - b. practice outline worksheet at least three days in advance of giving each sermon
 - c. a two-page rationale/commentary for the homiletical decisions for each sermon
 - d. final outline of the sermons
 - e. audio or video recording of each sermon
4. Read Reading the Gospels Wisely (Pennington) and in a ten-page, double-spaced report a) affirm that you have read the book, b) in 5-6 pages, summarize main point(s) of the author's argument(s), being sure to reference specific supporting insights and giving page numbers in parentheses, and, c) in the remaining 4-5 pages, engage personally with the content that you have already summarized. You should address the following questions: 1) How do the author's arguments affirm or challenge my current beliefs or practices in teaching ministry? 2) What from the book will I implement immediately? 3) Why would I recommend (or not recommend) this book?
5. A statement affirming that you have thoroughly and completely read each assigned text.
